

Waypoint Global Suite SPC

Course Mission:

The mission of Waypoint Global's SPC course is to provide the student with the developmental tools and concepts needed to configure the structure of the SPC product.

Prerequisites:

Keyboard skills and basic Windows® knowledge.

Audience:

Personnel responsible for the design and day-to-day operations of the SPC software.

Format:

Classroom hands-on training in Indianapolis, IN

Course Highlights:

After attending this three-day course, the student will be able to configure all areas of the SPC software, including Products, Processes, Locations, and Traceability. Attendees will:

- Complete an exercise for analyzing the process
- Receive Hands-on product training
- Configure of users and user groups in Desktop
- Assign SPC-related privileges to users and/or user groups
- Configure products to mirror current data collection for specified company by:
 - Configuring Products (part name/number)
 - Identifying Processes and configuring process traceability
 - Identifying Locations and configuring location traceability
 - Configuring of Characteristic Groups and Characteristics (Variable &/or Attribute)
- Learn advanced features of characteristic configuration
- Learn administration of advanced options
- Collect data and its associated traceability
- Analyze current and historical data through charts and reports
- Configure math constructions on characteristics
- Verify process status through Alarms
- Copying and deleting product configurations
- Complete a final exercise that checks understanding of all functions learned

Course Length:

3 days

Cost:

$1,275 USD per person

Contact

Email: info@waypointglobal.com

Phone: (844) 827-8254 Ext 1 US/Canada